

RULES

A separate entry must be submitted for each nomination.

Individuals may be nominated by either members of the design community or the general public. Self-nominations are also encouraged.

All entries and supporting material must be received by 5:00 p.m. MST on Friday, May 1, 2020.

NOMINATIONS CRITERIA

Nominees must be a residential-design professional in one of the following categories: residential architecture, residential interior (including kitchen and bath design), and landscape design.

Nominees must live, work or maintain an office in Colorado.

Nominees must have made particularly notable contributions to their design specialty with work of the highest quality. Demonstration of this can be through publication, industry awards and peer recognition, or other evidence.

Special consideration is given to nominees who have helped raise public awareness of and interest in the design profession.

Nominees must be younger than 40 years of age as of December 31, 2020.

MATERIAL SUBMISSION

All nominees must provide the following:

A résumé, and multiple photos of 3 to 5 finished design projects that best show the quality of your work (no renderings please), including a description of each project, location, dates, other professionals involved, and an explanation of your personal role in the project. Note: If your work is part of a collaborative effort, it is critical to be clear about the specific parts of each project that are yours, and the photos submitted should reflect that.

Other material such as PDFs or scans of publications, awards, and relevant publicity.

Any additional information the judging committee should consider.

Written confirmation that, if you are chosen as a winner, you will be available for a photo shoot in Denver in June and the awards celebration in August.
